LIMITED WARRANTY OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Limited Warranty. USA Coil & Air warrants its microchannel products to be free from defects in materials and workmanship under normal use and operation for a period of one (1) years from the date of product installation and no more than one (1) years and six (6) months from date of product delivery, as evidenced by USA Coil & Air's shipping records (the "Warranty Period"). For any materials or workmanship determined by USA Coil & Air to be defective within the Warranty Period, USA Coil & Air shall, at its option, either: (i) repair any such defective material, component part, or service, or (ii) make available to Customer, FOB Manufacturing Plant, any repaired or replacement parts or materials to replace such defective material or component part.

Exclusions. The above warranty shall not apply to any product that has been: (i) subjected to misuse, negligence or accident; (ii) misapplied by Customer or others for an improper use; (iii) installed in an improper manner; (iv) modified or repaired contrary to USA Coil & Air recommendations or generally accepted practices or procedures in the industry, or (v) operated under conditions which may cause product failure. USA Coil & Air shall not be responsible for any costs associated with the product damage, loss or replacement due to freeze-up, improper water treatment, improper cleaning, fluid chemistry exceeding USA Coil & Air's recommendations, clogging and debris, fouling, corrosion, galvanic induced corrosion, vibration, thermal cycling, hydraulic shock, over-pressurization, compressor failure, system contamination, loss of protective coating (where applied) and any other operating or system condition which may cause product failure.

Warranty Procedures. If any USA Coil & Air product is believed to be defective, written notice of such warranty claim must be made and an RMA# (Return Material Authorization) must be issued by USA Coil & Air 11 General Warren Blvd, Malvern, PA 19355. Ph: 800-872-2645 FAX: 610-296-9763
USA Coil & Air, at its option, may require return of any product believed to be defective for purposes of testing, inspection and verification, as a requirement for potential warranty coverage.

Disclaimer of Further Warranties. THE LIMITED WARRANTY SET FORTH ABOVE IS THE EXCLUSIVE WARRANTY APPLICABLE TO THIS CONTRACT, AND USA COIL & AIR EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES OR REMEDIES, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WHETHER THE SAME ARE WRITTEN, VERBAL, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY.

Limitation of Liability. Under no circumstances shall USA Coil & Air be liable for any incidental, consequential, or special damages, losses, or expenses incurred by Customer or any third party arising from this offer of sale or the performance of USA Coil & Air products hereunder. Under no circumstances shall the amount of any claim for damages or liability exceed the amount paid by Customer for products and services provided by USA Coil & Air hereunder.

Time Limitation on Warranty Claims. No legal action or claim, whether based in tort, contract, strict liability, breach of warranty or otherwise, arising out of this offer of sale or the performance by USA Coil & Air products hereunder may be commenced more than one (1) year following expiration of the Warranty Period. Customer hereby waives any such claim or cause of action commenced after the Warranty Period.

Five (5) Year Extended, Limited Warranty. All USA Coil & Air Replacement Coils with Epoxy Coating have an extended Limited Warranty for five (5) years after date of shipment.
